The Honourable R. Roy McMurtry, Q.C., M.P.P.,
Attorney General for Ontario,

Toronto, Ontario.

Honourable sir:

I have the honour to submit the thirteenth report of the Criminal Injuries Compensation Board which covers the period April 1, 1981 to March 31, 1982.

Yours respectfully,

Allan Grossman,
Chairman.

PROGRAMME DESCRIPTION

The Legislation

The legislation under which the Board functions is The Compensation for Victims of Crime Act, which came into force on September 1, 1971 superseding The Law Enforcement Compensation Act, 1967.

The Board is required by the Act to find the commission of a crime of violence (in the principal class of applications coming before it). A basic qualification for the consideration of an award is that there must be adequate and reliable evidence in this regard. In addition, the Board is required to consider all relevant circumstances including the behaviour of the victim at the time of the incident and the co-operation given by the victim to the law enforcement agencies.

Section 6 of the statute prescribes a one-year limitation period for filing an application for compensation, but the Board may extend the time as it considers warranted. During the year, 139 requests for extension of the limitation period were received, of which 123 were approved.

Subrogation

The Board is subrogated to all the rights of any person to whom payment is made under this Act, to recover damages from the offender by civil proceedings in respect to injury or death. $30,982.76 was recovered during the fiscal year, compared to $12,660.66 in the previous year.

Hearings

The members of the Board, of whom thirteen are on a part-time basis, usually sit in panels of two.

During the fiscal year, hearings, in addition to those held in Toronto, took place in Fort Frances, Thunder Bay, Sudbury, Sault Ste. Marie, Windsor, London and Ottawa. This is done to facilitate applicants, and to generate a better understanding of the work of the Board across the province. In addition this practice results in reduced costs to the board.

Documentary Evidence Hearings

A total of 107 cases were dealt with by documentary evidence during the fiscal year compared to 118 in the previous fiscal year.

Cases of this nature are relatively clear-cut. They are generally dealt with by the Chairman of the board, after having received agreement from the applicant and the alleged offender to proceed in this manner.

Dealing with cases on documentary evidence reduces the inconvenience of both the applicant and/or solicitor with regard to travel time to location of hearing as well as to the applicants' and witnesses' loss of work time. The board also benefits substantially by an overall reduction in its administrative costs, vis-a-vis staff and board members' travel time, accommodation, rental costs, fees, etc.

Child Abuse

Having regard for the degree of public concern about the apparent prevalence of a large number of child abuse cases, the Board is at a loss to understand why there have been so few applications resulting from such crimes.

This is particularly puzzling in that the Board has made every effort to publicize its readiness to consider such applications. In October 1980, the Chairman wrote to every Childrens' Aid Society in the province outlining its program as it affects child abuse. In spite of this, we must report that only one such application was made in 1980, and two in 1981.

Administration and Productivity

The administrative staff of the Board is comprised of the Registrar, the Chief of Investigation and three investigators, in addition to a clerical, stenographic and secretarial staff of eight. This small staff has been most dedicated in its efforts to maintain a high standard of service to the Board and to the public.

In this fiscal year the Board heard 980 applications as against 985 in the previous year. Awards ordered rose from 918 to 979 or by almost 7%. The total value of awards increased by 14% from $2,434,343.92 to $2,780,496.74, while the average award rose from $2,132.14 to $2,303.02 or by 8%.

The number of applications received declined slightly from 1274 in 1980-81 to 1250 in this fiscal year, but this is not considered to be of any particular significance.

Public Awareness

Large posters and explanatory pamphlets are supplied to hospital emergency wards and staff lounges, court houses and other public buildings, supermarkets, etc.

Police forces throughout the province have been provided with wallet-size cards which are designed to be handed out to draw to the attention of the victims of crime of violence that they may be eligible for compensation and advising how to apply to the board. The daily hearing agenda and a selection of typical board orders are provided to the news media.

Cost Sharing

Awards made under The Compensation for Victims of Crime Act are cost shared between the Federal Government and the Government of Ontario. The contribution by the Federal Government amounts to 50% of the awards (net of any recoveries) to a maximum of ten cents per capita of the population of Ontario. For the fiscal year 1980-81 this share amounted to $857,040.00.

SUMMARY OF DISALLOWED APPLICATIONS

200-4747 The applicant was the 19 year old common-law wife of a murder victim. Her application was denied as no evidence of her having been supported by the victim was given.

200-5017 The applicants were brothers aged 16 and 19 years, whose parents were murdered. Their application was denied when it was found that they had not suffered any pecuniary loss.

200-5324 An 18 year old student was involved in a brawl, in which he was injured in an indeterminate manner. The Board cited Section 17 (1) of the act to deny the award.

200-5530 A 24 year old unemployed woman was stabbed by a woman with whom she was drinking and having an argument over a man they were both dating. The offender was convicted of wounding and placed on two years probation. The Board took into account the applicant's drinking and arguing and cited Section 17 (1) of the Act to deny the application.

200-5582 A 35 year old taxi driver was struck on the back of the head by the lid of his taxi's trunk, which had been pushed down by the alleged offender. The alleged offender claimed he was just trying to help, and the applicant told the police he was not sure the injury was intended. As the Board was unable to conclude the injuries resulted from the commission of a crime of violence within the meaning of Section 5 of the Act, the application was denied.

200-5625 The applicant is the wife of the victim, who was murdered during a robbery. Only funeral expenses were claimed. This claim was denied as the applicant received a Canada Pension Plan death benefit and a substantial amount of life insurance.

200-6063 A 30 year old woman applied for compensation for the murder of her estranged husband. As the Act makes no provision for pain and suffering in this case, and no documentation was produced regarding loss of support or out of pocket expenses, the application was denied.

200-6129 A 26 year old truck driver claimed he was beaten unconscious by an unknown assailant in a hotel bar. However, records from the hospital which date from two days after the event show that he stated that he had slipped at home. Further, the incident was not reported to the police for ten days. Therefore, the Board found that it was not proven that the applicant was a victim of a crime of violence within the meaning of Section 5 (a) of the Act, and that Section 17 (2) of the Act also justified the denial.

200-6352 A 53 year old maintenance man was assaulted in a restaurant and sustained a severely depressed displaced fracture of the left zygoma and a laceration to his left eyebrow. However, the applicant was very intoxicated at the time, and apparently had provoked the alleged offender. No charges were laid. The Board invoked Section 17 (1) of the Act and denied the application, although costs for medical reports, mileage and legal fees were allowed.

200-6443 An 18 year old student sustained lacerations to the ear and throat while involved in a brawl. The Board cited Section 17 (1) of the Act to deny the application.

200-6538 A 23 year old electrician on parole at the time was picked up while hitch-hiking, and agreed when the driver suggested they use two rifles in the car for an armed robbery. The offender first shot at a house. It was only after this that the applicant attempted to leave the offender, who thereupon shot him. The Board felt that the applicant was the author of his own misfortune, and cited Section 17 (1) of the Act to deny the application.

200-6594 A 24 year old labourer was involved in a fight with a co-worker. Since there was provocation on both sides, the Board invoked Section 17 (1) of the Act to deny the application.

200-6794 A 39 year old professor was involved in an altercation with his neighbour. The applicant claimed he was struck without provocation with a board. The alleged offender also had a wound which he claimed was inflicted by the applicant. Both the applicant and the alleged offender laid charges against one another, which were subsequently dropped. The Board cited Section 17 (1) of the Act to deny the application.

200-6830 A 28 year old woman was found wandering partially clothed and injured in the early morning. As she had no recollection of how she was injured, it could not be proven that she was a victim of a crime of violence as set out in Section 5 of the Act and the application was denied.

200-6958 The application was made on behalf of the children of a murder victim. The victim had been helping a woman to leave her husband, and realizing the danger stayed and argued with the husband, who had a gun. The Board cited Section 17 (1) of the Act to deny the application because the victim realized the danger he was in and had opportunities to leave.

200-6972 A 47 year old maintenance man was beaten and robbed by a man he had become drunk with. He sustained facial and scalp lacerations. Because the applicant was unco-operative, the offender could only be convicted of possession of stolen property. Due to the applicant's action, the Board cited Section 17 (1) and 17 (1a) of the Act to deny application.

200-6982 A 31 year old bus driver was involved in an argument with a fellow worker over a private matter. He did not lay charges until three weeks after the event, when he found that the W.C.B. would not consider his case. The Board invoked Section 17 (1a) of the Act to deny the application.

200-7014 A 55 year old clerk was involved in an argument at a social function. While fighting with the offender, he slipped and fell, sustaining a compound fracture to his leg. The offender was convicted of common assault and fined $250.00. The Board, noting that the two men had been drinking and arguing throughout the evening, cited Section 17 (1) of the Act to deny the application.

200-7016 The applicant's wife and step-daughter were murder victims. He applied for compensation for financial losses. Although the Board sympathized with the applicant, it could find no proof of financial loss, and therefore denied the application.

200-7063 A 65 year old man was assaulted and robbed when be brought the offender and a girl home from a bar after agreeing to pay for sexual relations with the girl. The Board cited Section 17 (1) of the Act to deny the application.

200-7095 A 22 year old unemployed man was struck over the head with a beer bottle sustaining a concussion. Witnesses of the event claim that he was drunk and abusive. Therefore, the Board cited Section 17 (1) of the Act to deny the application.

200-7110 A 49 year old woman on a disability pension claimed she was assaulted in her apartment. As there was no evidence of such an assault, the Board found that the applicant was not a victim of a crime of violence as defined in Section 5 of the Act. Costs for obtaining medical reports were allowed.

200-7191 A 59 year old woman claimed she was assaulted by three women in an elevator. However, charges laid against the alleged offenders by private informations were dropped, and contradicting evidence from reliable witnesses and irregularities in the applicant's testimony led the Board to conclude that she was not a victim of a crime of violence within the meaning of Section 5 of the Act. The application was therefore denied.

200-7200 A 30 year old security guard was punched in the face while he was walking with his mother. Although police had witnessed the incident, he did not wish to press any charges at the time, nor did he pursue the matter later. The Board cited Section 17 (1a) of the Act to deny the application.

200-7262 A 20 year old construction worker instigated a fight with another driver by first refusing to let the offender pass him, and then by ramming the back of his car. It also appeared that the applicant began the actual fight. The Board therefore cited Section 17 (1) of the Act to deny the application.

200-7299 A 17 year old unemployed man alleged that he was punched and struck with a rifle butt without provocation while collecting a debt. It appears, however, that he struck the alleged offender first. Furthermore, he did not report the incident to the police. The Board therefore cited Section 17 (1) and 17 (2) of the Act to deny the application.

200-7343 A 16 year old maintenance helper was involved in a fight with a friend over a case of beer. Charges against the alleged offender were dismissed. Because of the circumstances, the Board invoked Section 17 (1) of the Act to deny the application.

200-7367 The applicant is the mother of the victim, a 13 year old boy who was punched in the face in a school yard incident. The victim had thrown away the alleged offender's ball, and refused to retrieve it. The alleged offender then hit him, fracturing his jaw. No charges were laid. The Board cited Section 17 (1) of the Act to deny the application.

200-7426 A 55 year old woman claimed she had been beaten on several occasions by the alleged offender. She claimed that she had returned to the alleged offender's home several times, and was beaten each time. Although she claimed that she called the police on each occasion, no records existed of these calls. Charges brought against the alleged offender by a private information were dismissed. The Board cited Sections 17 (1) and 17 (2) of the Act to deny the application.

200-7496 A 53 year old man was assaulted in a bar. He sustained a fractured nose and jaw and minor lacerations. The police reported that the victim had been intoxicated and unco-operative, and that he did not want an investigation carried out. The Board cited Section 17 (1) and 17 (2) of the Act to deny the application.

200-7542 A 21 year old folding operator was shot in the shoulder. He knew of the offender's violent nature, but stayed with friends in the offender's house, even though the offender had a knife and ordered them out. Even when the offender got a gun, the applicant only retreated to the porch. The Board therefore invoked Section 17 (1) of the Act to deny the application.

200-7560 A 42 year old unemployed man was drinking at a bootlegger's when he was slashed on the nose with a knife by a man he had insulted. He returned in a little while for revenge, and after starting a fight was stabbed in several places. The applicant himself was too drunk to remember what had happened. The Board cited Section 17 (1) of the Act to deny the application.

200-7611 A 17 year old student was struck in the mouth in a class, sustaining dental damage. It appears that the applicant instigated the incident, although no positive conclusions could be made. On the balance of the evidence, the Board cited Section 17 (1) of the Act to deny the application.

200-7727 A 21 year old construction worker and a friend took two women to their home from a liquor store. The women later returned with the two men and robbed and assaulted the applicant. The applicant appears to have refused to identify the offenders. The Board cited Sections 17 (1) and 17 (2) of the Act to deny the application.

200-7744 A 21 year old unemployed man was hit by glass shattered from his windshield by a thrown beer bottle. He had collided with another car, and had almost driven over two men who were trying to flag him down. The applicant laid a charge of assault causing bodily harm against one of the men who was convicted and given a conditional discharge. The Board cited Section 17 (1) of the Act to deny the application.

200-7818 A 54 year old houseman stated that he had been robbed and assaulted. The investigating officer claimed the applicant had fallen while drunk. The Board was of the opinion that the applicant was not a victim of a crime of violence as defined in Section 5 of the Act.

200-7864 A 20 year old clerk claimed he was assaulted while in a bar, sustaining a fractured jaw. The hospital report stated that he claimed it was an accident, and that he was intoxicated. The incident was not reported to the police for 5 days. The Board therefore cited Sections 17 (1) and 17 (2) of the Act to deny the application.

200-7876 A 29 year old administrator claimed he was assaulted. However, he told the police at the time of the occurrence that he had slipped on some snow. The Board therefore found that no evidence supported his claim of being a victim of a crime of violence as defined by Section 5 (a) of the Act.

200-7921 A 30 year old draftsman was involved in an altercation with his neighbour. The applicant had apparently slapped the offender's son, and later pulled a knife on the offender. When they met a few days later, they began to fight, and the applicant was injured. The Board cited Section 17 (1) of the Act to deny application.

200-7935 A 50 year old auto mechanic was involved in an argument with a neighbour. It appears that the applicant began the argument by spraying grass clippings from a lawnmower over the alleged offender's car, and then by spraying the alleged offender with a hose. Only then was he struck by a beer bottle, which appears to have been thrown accidentally. The alleged offender was acquitted in court. The Board cited Section 17 (1) of the Act to deny application.

200-7973 A 30 year old unemployed woman was shot by a man she moved in with after knowing him for just one day. She was intoxicated at the time of the occurrence, two days after having moved in. As she failed to appear before the Board on two dates, the Board used the documentary evidence and cited Section 17 (1) of the Act to deny the award.

200-7981 A 27 year old construction worker was assaulted after a minor car accident. At the time he told the police that he knew who had assaulted him, and told them that he was going to handle it in his own way. He went to the police three months later when he learned that a police report was required by the Board. The Board cited Section 17 (2) of the Act to deny the application.

200-7997 A 35 year old unemployed man was stabbed by a woman he was drinking with when he refused to leave her apartment. He was unco-operative with the police, and told them that he did not want to press charges. The Board therefore cited Section 17 (2) of the Act to deny the award.

200-8031 A 28 year old factory worker was assaulted in a shopping plaza parking lot, sustaining black eyes, and bruises. He was unco-operative with the police, and although he told them that he could identify the offender he missed a scheduled appointment at the identification bureau. Even after being notified by the Board that this was an issue, he did not contact the police. The Board cited Section 17 (1a) of the Act to deny the application.

200-8093 A 19 year old student was stabbed with a knife during a fight. He was unco-operative with police, changing his account of the events several times. It appears, however, that he instigated the fight. The alleged offender was acquitted on all charges. The Board cited Section 17 (2) of the Act to deny the application.

200-8099 A 32 year old car salesman claimed he was assaulted by a man he had won some money from in a pool game, and then invited home. However, he did not go to the hospital until three days after the alleged incident, and then claimed his injuries were from playing hockey. The incident was not reported to the police for 19 days, and even then the applicant was not consistent in what he said. The Board therefore invoked Section 17 (1) and 17 (2) of the Act to deny the application.

200-8130 The applicant is the mother of a 19 year old woman who was murdered. It appears that the victim was involved in an illegal drug smuggling or trafficing dispute, and she had ammunition and 20 bags of marijuana in her car. She also had a past criminal record for drug offenses. The Board cited Section 17 (1) of the Act to deny the award.

200-8202 A 33 year old clerk went drinking with her former common-law husband, whom she had left a week before. At some point during the night, while the offender was in bed with her, he assaulted her. The Board felt that the applicant was the author of her own misfortune, and cited Section 17 (1) of the Act to deny the application.

200-8327 A 53 year old clerk was assaulted and robbed by a man he invited up to his apartment after meeting him on the street. He sustained some bruises. The offender was convicted of robbery and forceable confinement and sentenced to three years imprisonment. Taking into account the applicant's imprudent actions, the Board cited Section 17 (1) of the Act to deny the application.

200-8443 A 44 year old unemployed woman claimed that she had been pushed down a set of stairs by her son-in-law while she was intoxicated. There was no proof of this, and the police felt that it was likely that she fell down the stairs. A warrant for the alleged offender's arrest is outstanding. The Board felt that a crime of violence within the meaning of Section 5 of the Act had not been proven, and denied the application.

200-8532 A 39 year old welder was involved in a family brawl in which all participants were slightly wounded, and in which all four parties laid charges. These charges were all withdrawn. The Board cited Section 17 (1) of the Act to deny the application.

200-8566 A 33 year old taxi-driver alleged that he was assaulted in a pool hall. He did not report the incident to the police for six weeks. He gave them a false address, and refused to contact the police again. The Board cited Section 17 (1) of the Act to deny the application.

200-8575 A 50 year old dishwasher was threatened with assault by a fellow boarder if he fell asleep and dropped a cigarette while watching television, as he had already done several times. The applicant then feigned sleep and dropped a cigarette, and was assaulted. The Board felt that because of this, he was the author of his own misfortune, and cited Section 17 (1) of the Act to deny the application.

200-8772 A 28 year old unemployed man was shot in the leg. He claimed that he had been hit from behind, taken away in a van, shot in the leg, and dumped in a parking lot. His account of events to the police was different, and, it changed several times. He was very intoxicated at the time, and although he indicated that he knew who had shot him, he would not identify the offenders to the police. The Board cited Section 17 (1) and 17 (2) of the Act to deny the award.
